PEDIATRIC CCRN CERTIFICATION REVIEW COURSE

Sept. 20—21, 2010 - 8 AM to 4:30 PM

About the Workshop: Are you a Pediatric Critical Care RN or APRN with direct bedside care? Are you an educator or do you supervise nursing students in pediatric critical care? The AACN CCRN Pediatric Critical Care certification review course is a two-day program, which is being offered September 20 – 21, 2010 as a pre-conference session at this year's VCU Health System's Pediatric Critical Care Conference. The Pediatric CCRN Review Course will help prepare you to be successful on the Peds CCRN Exam, as well as provide a great review of basic pediatric critical care. ANCC CE Contact Hours will be offered for completion of the program. The course will be taught by AACN's CCRN Certification exam content experts from ProEd. More than 90 percent of those taking the course have been successful on the first attempt of taking the exam.

About the Presenter: Ann J. Brorsen, RN, MSN, CCRN, CEN, of Sun City, CA, is a motivating, dynamic and entertaining speaker. She has helped thousands of nurses attain certification as a CCRN. Ms. Brorsen has held positions as a staff nurse, manager, educator, executive, consultant, and entrepreneur. She has co-authored three books and is presently working on her fourth, The Pediatric CCRN Certification Review, to be published in 2011.

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The 4th Annual Pediatric Critical Care conference is designed to provide a venue for collaboration with colleagues and experts in the care of critically ill infants and children. This is an opportunity for you to bring yourself up to date on the latest issues in pediatric critical care.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Critical Care Pediatric Nurses. Also, those staff caring for children at risk of becoming critically ill, such as in the ER, PACU, or nursing areas such as Bone Marrow and Solid Organ Transplant, General Care or Rehabilitation.
