

VCU NURSING PROFESSIONAL PRACTICE MODEL

The components of our professional practice model include a culture of respect, professional recognition and rewards, shared governance, and a professional practice grounded in our values of caring, knowledge, leadership and collaboration. The components and values of our PPM drive our delivery of care to be relationship-based.

Relationship-based care is delivered through nurse-patient relationships, relationships with the interdisciplinary team and others, and relationship with self, personally and professionally.